ORDER

LAQUAN WILLIAMS,

Movant.

---

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The Court has received the attached letter from the movant, Laquan Williams. The Court cannot intervene in a prison disciplinary proceeding. The defendant correctly points out that if he is dissatisfied with the results of a prison disciplinary proceeding, his remedy is to raise his appeal internally and then, if he is dissatisfied with his administrative remedies, to bring a Section 2241 petition.

The Court has not received a response to its November 6, 2020 Order, also attached, regarding the appointment of William's former counsel to represent him for purposes of a motion for compassionate release. ECF No. 168. The parties should advise the Court as to any motion for compassionate release. The Clerk is asked to mail a copy of this Order to the defendant.

SO ORDERED.

- V. SPECIFIC EVIDENCE RELIED ON TO SUPPORT FINDINGS (Physical evidence, observations written documents, etc.)

This incident report was rewritten for clarification. Inmate Williams, Laquan, reg. no. 79176-054, is being charged with Code 108, Possession, Introduction, of a Portable Telephone. Specifically, on September 2, 2019, a cellular telephone was recovered from within the secure perimeter at ALM. This cell phone was sent to an outside forensic laboratory to be analyzed. On March 5, 2020, I reviewed the cellular telephone report and discovered Williams utilized the cell phone to contact telephone numbers: 718-801-7394

Dépt. of Justice / Federal Bureau of Prisons

and 718-709-1270 several times. When I conducted a search in the BOP communication systems, both telephone numbers show up as being linked to Williams. The search also shows Williams was the only inmate at ALM communicating with these numbers. Inculpatory evidence in the form of a memorandum from Office Sura dated 9/5/19 corroborated the evidence cited in this report. Office Sura writes: On 9/5/19 at 7:15 pm Inmate TEJADA was on close observation status in SHU. At 7:30 pm TEJADA stated he couldn't hold it anymore and wanted to take the contraband out himself to give to the operations lieutenant. TEJADA retrieved the contraband. The contraband was identified as a black cell phone. A photograph of the cellphone supports the chain of custody form and proper handling of the phone from discovery to its current disposition. The forensic report gathered from the cellular telephone support the use by WILLIAMS. WILLIAMS' contact number is stored in the phone. WILLIAMS is the sole inmate in the Federal Bureau of Prisons with the same contact telephone number stored in the cell phone. The link analysis between WILLIAMS and the use of the cell phone is supported in the forensic report. The DHO believed the information provided by the staff member involved in this case, as they derived no known benefit by providing false information. The DHO finds the charge to be supported in this case based upon the greater weight of evidence cited in this report. Upon questioning by the DHO, WILLIAMS denied the charge. He elaborated upon his plea by stating, he didn't use the cellphone. After the consideration of evidence documented above, the DHO has drawn the conclusion the greater weight of the evidence, listed in the paragraphs above, support(s) the finding, WILLIAMS committed the prohibited act(s) of Possession of a Hazardous Tool (Cellphone), Code(s) 108, on 9/5/19, at or about 1430, in, at FCI Allenwood.

VI. SANCTION OR ACTION TAKEN
108 - LP VISIT 2 YEARS, 108 - LP PHONE 2 YEARS, 108 - LP EMAIL 2 YEARS, 108 - FF NVGCT 100 DAYS, 108 - DS 90 DAYS, 108 - DIS GCT 41 DAYS

VII. REASON FOR SANCTION OR ACTION TAKEN
WILLIAM s use of a cellular telephone threatened the orderly running of the correctional facility. For inmates to utilize items of this type, not known to be provided to them through institutional channels indicates defiance and refusal to follow established and known policy. Limits are placed on inmate property to persuade them not to possess unnecessary or potentially dangerous items. These can be potentially be used to facilitate escape, contraband introduction and/or harm to another through unrestricted access to the general public. The DHO finds the charge for code 108 to warrant the Forfeiture of Non Vested Good Conduct Time in addition to the Disallowance of Good Conduct Time based on the offense being of a highly aggravated offense which greatly jeopardizes the safety of staff and inmates.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

---

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

- against -

LAQUAN WILLIAMS,

Movant.

---

17-cr-402 (JGK)

MEMORANDUM OPINION
AND ORDER

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The movant, Laquan Williams, has moved for compassionate release, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A). The Court has previously denied the movant's application for the appointment of counsel in connection with the application for compassionate release without prejudice to renewal.

Upon review of the papers, it is apparent now that counsel would be of assistance in this case. The Government alleges that the movant has failed to exhaust his administrative remedies by at least making a request to the Bureau of Prisons and waiting for 30 days after the application, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A). ECF No. 163. The failure to exhaust his remedies would be fatal to the application. See, e.g., United States v. Ogarro, No. 18-CR-373, 2020 WL 1876300, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 14, 2020); United States v. Roberts, No. 18-CR-528, 2020 WL 1700032, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 8, 2020); United States v. Monzon, No. 99-CR-157, 2020 WL 550220, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 4, 2020). But the exhaustion requirement can be satisfied by making an appropriate application and waiting 30 days for a response. Moreover, the movant has asserted in his papers that he did make such a request to the Warden of FCI Allenwood Medium, but has not filed proof to support this assertion. ECF No. 157. Further, the movant does not support the application with any detailed explanations of his medical conditions that would make his continued incarceration particularly difficult, and he does not discuss why application of the factors under section 3553(a) would support the application. See 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) (requiring courts to “consider the factors set forth in” 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)). However, the movant does point to an outbreak of COVID-19 at the prison where he is located.

Therefore, the Court will appoint counsel for Williams to assist with his compassionate release motion, as a continuation of counsel’s representation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3006A. See United States v. Rice, No. 83-CR-150-3, 2020 WL 4505813, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 5, 2020). In deciding whether to exercise the discretion to appoint counsel, including for post-conviction motions, courts in the Second Circuit “consider the same factors as those applicable to requests for pro bono counsel made by civil litigants,” including “the likelihood of success on the merits, the complexity of the legal issues and the movant’s ability to investigate and present the case.” Jerez v. Bell, 2019 WL 1466899, at *4 (citing Cooper v. A. Sargenti Co., 877 F.2d 170, 171-72 (2d Cir. 1989)). The Court has considered the factors and is concerned over the conflicting representations in the papers and the apparent inability of the movant to present the details of his conditions warranting relief. The Court will therefore appoint the former counsel for Williams to represent him in connection with this application. Any supporting papers should be submitted by December 11, 2020. The Government may submit any additional responsive papers by December 21, 2020.

SO ORDERED.
